

Luke 20.27-38

The Sadducees try to catch Jesus out with a silly question, but instead Jesus reminds them that God is not for the dead, but for the living, because to him, all are alive.

Questions help us to learn more about Jesus.

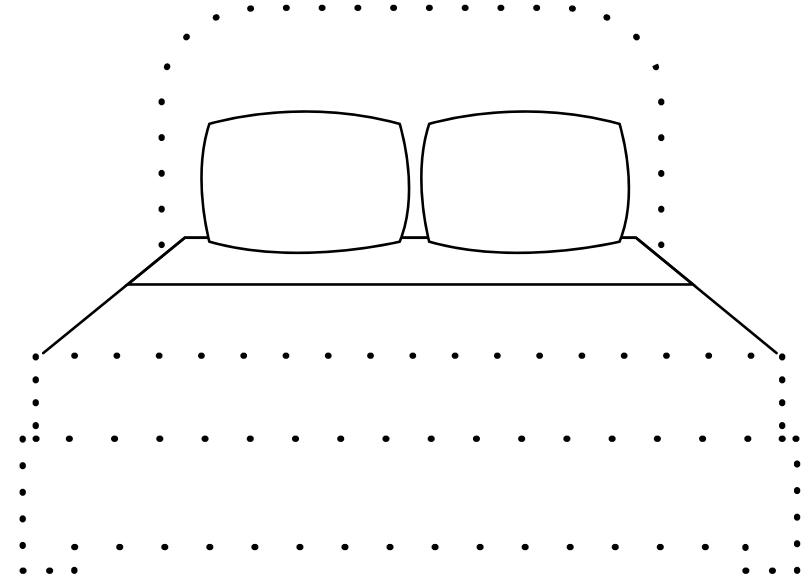

Jesus says Write

Think about a question you'd like to know the answer to. Write it down. Where can you go looking for answers? Write these as a list and then try to find an answer.

Here is a riddle: What has one head, one foot and four legs?

Draw the dot-to-dot picture to find out the answer.

?????? Puzzle

Help guide the person to the correct answer by following the path that adds up to 20.

